

Brush Creek Budget.

Farmers have begun to sow oats. Our school closed on the 16th inst. W. S. Drace wielded the rod during the term.

Henry Hayes can be seen going north every day. Wonder what's the attraction?

Ask Willie Cupp whose horse he caught by the school-house and where he rode it to.

We think when Col. Henry takes the girls cart-riding he ought to be careful not to permit them to fall out.

Thos. A. Craig has purchased a farm in Macon county, to which he will move his family in the near future.

A great many boys from this part of the county have gone to Illinois. We think, from what we can hear, they are getting hand-outs on the broom.

Willie Cupp went after his best girl the other night to take her to preaching, but she would not accompany him for fear of catching the measles.

Tripletts Times.

BY WARNING

C. F. Bowman was in Mendon Monday on business.

John O. Britt, of Brunswick, spent Sunday with relatives in this city.

Rev. J. M. Settle preached at Mendon Sunday morning and at this place Sunday night.

Dr. R. E. Kiernan, jr., of Huntsville, is in our city this week, repairing the teeth of some of our fellow-citizens.

M. B. Schofield, of Marceline, Mo., spent a few days with friends in and about Tripletts this week. He returned home Wednesday.

Elder J. A. Hoffman, state evangelist, preached a very eloquent sermon Sunday evening at the Christian church on "Missions."

Mrs. Eliza Norvell commenced a two months' term of school, at this place, Monday. The enrollment is good and is increasing all the time.

Ambrose Wood, Harry Shupe, J. M. Collins and others, of Mendon, passed through our city Tuesday en route to Brunswick to attend the K. P. institution.

Quite a number of the members of Ruby lodge, No. 261, K. of P. attended the institution of the new K. P. lodge, at Brunswick, Tuesday night. All enjoyed themselves hugely and a number of them didn't "get home till morning."

Quite a crowd of young people from Brunswick attended the debate here Saturday night. As we know the names of only a few of them we will not give any, because we are not able to give all. They express themselves as having been highly entertained.

Married, at the residence of the bride's father, 4 miles east of Tripletts, Thursday evening at eight o'clock, Geo. H. Muckey to Miss Jennie McCluhan, Rev. Grant A. Robbins, of Mendon, officiating. The groom's car extends congratulations to the happy couple and wishes their married life to be one continuous round of pleasure.

The joint debate at this place Saturday night resulted in a sweeping victory for the Tripletts forces. The Brunswick contestants are not satisfied with one defeat and they must have the dose doubled, so on next Friday night, in the city hall, at Brunswick, the joint debate will be repeated with a different question for discussion. The same parties will participate as before.

Charles Whitall, of Mendon, and Miss Martha Britt, of this place, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. E. Britt, of Tripletts, Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock, Rev. J. M. Settle tying the knot. Both have many friends here and all wish that their little matrimonial boat may glide gently over the waters of life and not one ripple come in to disturb its rhythmic motion.

Hamden Happenings.

O. P. Ray's school closed last Saturday at McCurry school-house.

The Hamden Literary society closed last Saturday night for the winter.

Good Advice Quickly Followed

Cured of Rheumatism by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"C. L. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
"I was taken down with rheumatism over a year ago. I was sick for over six months. Often I would have such pains that I could hardly endure them. A friend came to me and advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took him at his word and got a bottle of it, and since have taken eight bottles of it.

It Has Cured Me

When the doctors could do me no good whatever. After being benefited so much from this medicine I describe Hood's Sarsaparilla as a wonderful medicine. I also advise every one who is troubled with rheumatism not to be without it.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

out Hood's Sarsaparilla. I am a farmer, and the medicine has given me much energy and strength to perform my work." Orono W. Tuley, Benjamin, Missouri.

The writer is through sewing oats and has some tobacco plants up. For once we are ahead of the "flying Dutchman."

The party at D. M. Crone's is said to have been a "sugar party." Sugar and girls together make something very sweet.

"Uncle Mose" Chapman, of near this place, has just about completed a commodious addition to his dwelling house. "Uncle Mose" now has a nice house in which to invent flying machines.

The latest Snapp boomer has fled. A Mr. Wilson struck these parts, claiming to be a business man. He stopped at Snapp and commenced building a blacksmith shop. He bought his lumber on "tick," hired his carpenters and put them to work. He took two men to town after shingles subsequent to his having borrowed about $25 from some of the neighbors. When Mr. Wilson and the two men got to town, he went to the depot to see if his tools had come, and that was the last seen or heard of him.

preparing to build a new residence on his lot in the northwest part of town. Verily Rothville is booming.

Mr. E. G. Scott says ask Will Gordon if he has any more hats to set up as targets for old Virginians to shoot at.

Oscar Maupin, Charlie Hedrick and Geo. Dowell, three young men of the vicinity of Mike, all started to California Friday last.

Prof. A. M. Colley's hen house was struck by lightning last Wednesday night and destroyed, together with about two dozen chickens.

A. F. Semple is adding to the appearance of his rural home by the erection of a new hen house and a picket fence around his garden, but we have failed to discover that cyclone cave that the editor or the editor's devil was writing about in an issue of the COURIER some time since.

Jacob Schorr, proprietor of the Rothville roller mills, is building a new brick engine house to take the place of the old shed formerly used as an engine room and saw shed. He recently purchased a large engine of Geo. Manavaugh, of Bucklin, which will henceforth be used as the propelling power to the flouring mills, and the old one will be used to feed the saw, the corn burs and a feed mill. "Our Jake" is a hustler.

Guthridge Mills Gossip.

News scarce this week.

There is yet some moving going on in and out of this vicinity.

Mike is soon to have a brand new doctor and a new drug store.

Everybody is wondering if spring has come. We can tell them further on.

John White came up from near Brunswick last Sunday to see papa mama.

Constable P. C. Shoemaker, of near Pee Dee, was over at the Mills last Monday on business.

Some are still delivering corn in this neighborhood. The price paid is 25 cts a bushel.

A feather renovator has been making the rounds in this neighborhood and has been doing some work. One bed, after being "renovated," was weighed in the balances and found wanting just 9 pounds.

J. M. Olinger and N. Minks started their ditching machine last Monday. They are doing some work for F. J. Ellis. The machine cuts a ditch four feet wide and three feet deep, and throws all of the dirt on one side of the ditch.

An agent for the Omaha Grocery company has been canvassing in this vicinity, and has taken a number of orders for goods to be shipped to Marceline. [Our correspondent will pardon us for suggesting to our farmer friends that they patronize Chariton county merchants or those of adjacent towns. There will scarcely be a one of you who has given this foreign grocery house an order, but will be asking your home merchants for credit before harvest. You had better stick to those who favor you with credit when you desire it, and are sorely in need of it.—Ed.]

The family of Mat Smith have been entertaining that wicked Russian lady, Mrs. La Grippe, for the past two weeks. They find her a most undesirable guest, but she still remains with them.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sullivan celebrated the anniversary of her sixty-sixth birthday at the home of her daughter, ter, Mrs. P. P. Morris, on the 19th inst. The guests present were as follows: Mesdames Mary Parch, Wm. Jones, Chas. Blevins, Jacob Schmidt and daughter, Miss Orlie. They report a most enjoyable time.

Badly Hurt.

Geo. M. Dewey, jr., the junior proprietor of the hardware firm of G. M. Dewey & Co., of Keytesville, received a fall last Wednesday afternoon which came near costing him his life.

While doing some gutting at Seth Singleton's residence, George, in some way, made a misstep, and fell off of the porch to the ground, striking his head against some hard substance, inflicting an ugly cut; his shoulder was badly bruised and his collar bone was broken.

Mr. Singleton happened to be in the house at the time, picked George up, summoned assistance and took him to his father-in-law's Mr. J. P. Tippetts's, George's father, Dr. G. M. Dewey was sent for and administered such medical aid as was necessary.

We sympathize with George in his misfortune, and hope to see him out again in a few days.
